

The GroupHEALTH Advantage for TRANSPORTATION & TRUCKING EMPLOYERS

Transportation & Trucking businesses face industry-specific employee benefit challenges

Truck drivers face a unique set of health risks. They also tend to have higher-than-average disability claims, and require solutions on the go while they're on the road.

AdvantagePLUS covers more than 250 trucking companies, serving almost 17,000 employees across Canada.

AdvantagePLUS™

A benefits plan created specifically for Canada's trucking industry, GroupHEALTH's AdvantagePLUS™ offers a unique combination of value & features.

- » Endorsed by every trucking association in Canada: only members of the Canadian provincial trucking associations have access to AdvantagePLUS™
- » Low-cost value-add services such as Virtual Healthcare Powered by TELUS Health, access to workers compensation case management through the Disability Management Institute, and Employee & Family Assistance Programs
- » Cost containment features are built into key products and services, such as prescription drug coverage and disability options to ensure plan sustainability
- » The most efficient online enrolment and administrative systems in the industry, supported by best-in-class service teams

Better benefits snapshot for TRANSPORTATION & TRUCKING EMPLOYERS

“ Today’s carriers operate in an increasingly competitive environment, especially when it comes to attracting and keeping employees. To succeed, you need the best people. Those people look for companies that do more than the just the basics. BCTA’s AdvantagePLUS Group Benefits program is designed with unique benefits for our industry, to give your employees the benefits they want with stable premiums you can afford. ”
